YOU’RE INVITED

The Florida Coastal Geriatric Resources, Education, and Training Center (GREAT GEC) is pleased to invite you to attend the

2nd Annual Interdisciplinary Geriatrics Symposium

Addressing the Clinical Challenges of Elder Care

April 25th and 26th, 2009 • NSU Main Campus, Fort Lauderdale, Florida

The Annual Interdisciplinary Geriatrics Symposium is the GREAT GEC’s premier educational event in geriatrics, providing the latest information on clinical care and research on aging. The 2009 Symposium will address the educational needs of geriatrics professionals from all disciplines, including physicians, dentists, optometrists, audiologists, speech therapists, occupational therapists, physical therapists, nurses, healthcare administrators, educators, health profession students and others. Come and update your knowledge and skills through:

● Eleven Lectures ● Two Workshops ●
● Poster Presentations ● Saturday Evening Reception ●
● International Film Premiere of "The Lunch Box”●

For more information on the symposium, go to:
http://www.nova.edu/gec/events.html

To register for the symposium online, go to:
http://www.medicine.nova.edu/ce/interdisciplinary_symposium.html

To register for the symposium by mail, go to:
http://www.nova.edu/gec/events.html

To become a sponsor or exhibitor, email the GEC to:
gec@nova.edu

Please post and/or distribute this invitation to all interested parties.
We look forward to seeing you in Fort Lauderdale!

The GREAT GEC is funded by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA).