Nova Southeastern University
College of Osteopathic Medicine
Technical Standards Certification

Nova Southeastern University College of Osteopathic Medicine (NSU-COM) is committed to ensuring that all students fully and equally enjoy the benefits of a professional education. All NSU-COM students must meet the minimum essential requirements for the safe, efficient, and effective practice of osteopathic medicine.

All students are required to read the “Core Performance Standards for Admissions and Progress” located on pages 19-20 of the Health Professions Division Catalog. A copy of the catalog can be found at http://osteopathic.nova.edu/publications/index.html. Once you have reviewed this information, complete and sign the certification form below.

If you have any questions or would like to request accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please visit the website: www.nova.edu/disabilityservices/index.html. A student requesting reasonable accommodations must complete and send all the required documentation for consideration of accommodations to:

College of Osteopathic Medicine
Office for Preclinical Education
3200 S. University Drive
Fort Lauderdale, FL 33328
Attention: Dr. Margaret. Wilkinson, Associate Dean

I hereby certify that I have read the above-mentioned statement citing portions of the NSU Catalog and that I can meet all requirements listed with or without a reasonable accommodation.

______________________________________________  ______________________________________
Printed Name                                      Signature

______________________________________________  ______________________________________
NSU ID#                                          Date