

The Alvin Sherman Library and Nova Southeastern University,
South Regional - BCC Library and the Argentinian Consulate in Miami

Invite you to this special series

CINE ARGENTINO

Camila

Sunday, October 5 at 2 p.m.

The first Latin American woman director depicts the real story of a young woman in the 19th century colonial period. This true story received an Oscar in Hollywood. Starring Hector Alterio and others.
English subtitles. Directed by María Luisa Bemberg.

Juan Manuel De Rosas

Sunday, October 12 at 2 p.m.

Juan Manuel de Rosas (1793-1877) was an Argentine caudillo who ruled Argentina from 1829-1852. He achieved a modicum of national unity that strengthened currents of Argentine nationalism for the future.
Starring Rodolfo Bebán.
Directed by Manuel Antín

Made in Argentina

Sunday, October 19 at 2 p.m.

A drama/comedy dealing with the theme and experience of exile. A couple from Argentina move to New York City for political reasons, but later wish to return to their home. Starring Beto Brandoni and Martha Bianchi.
Directed by Juan José Jusid.

Darse Cuenta (Becoming Aware)

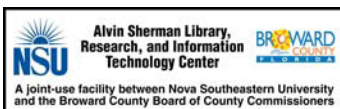

Sunday, October 26 at 2 p.m.

Psychological comedy about a young doctor, his life and his problems as he tries to save the life of a young man so badly hurt that the other doctors gave him up for dead. Starring Beto Brandoni and Uruguayan actress China Zorrilla.
English subtitles. Directed by Alejandro Doria.

With commentary by actress and journalist, Adriana Bianco

Free Admission Refreshments provided courtesy of Colonial Coffee & Buenos Aires Bakery & Cafe

Films are being shown at Nova Southeastern University,
DeSantis Auditorium
3301 College Avenue, Fort Lauderdale-Davie, Florida 33314
954. 262. 5477

Consulado General de la Argentina
Republica Aren Miami

www.nova.edu/library/main www.browardlibrary.org/library