

Winter 2008

As an Alvin Sherman Library card holder, you join the more than 49,000 Broward County residents who continue to discover the treasures within the library's 325,000 square foot walls and beyond. We strive to create a distinctively unique and innovative environment for our wide range of patrons. Whatever your interests, personal or business, you'll find everything from best-selling novels and the latest video games to unique family programming and special events. You'll also have access, 24/7 to electronic resources virtually or at our library. Plus, as an academic library we are open longer hours than other local libraries, giving you more time to enjoy the gift of a great library-(100/hrs/week with over 12 hours open on Sundays!

Eye on Resources

One of the many benefits of using your Alvin Sherman Library card is accessing our extensive databases. Here's one example.

Testing & Education
Reference Center

Provides detailed information on colleges, universities, private secondary schools, specialty programs, and scholarships. Test preparation section provides practice tests and test preparation materials for numerous academic, civil service, and licensing tests. More than seventy complete ebooks are included. Individual registration required for test prep and scholarship search.

Check out GoodReads, a free service offering a variety of book lists. To sign up, visit www.nova.edu/library/goodreads.

Helps you prepare for tests such as the FCAT and SAT .

The Alvin Sherman Library collaborates with all Broward County Libraries. Check out a book here...return it to your local branch and vice versa.

Dinosaur!
