Adults GENEALOGY SUMMER LEARNING SERIES

Sunday, July 6 1:00-3:00 pm.

The Long Road Home: Adoptees, Fosters & Orphans

Not all genealogy begins at home. History and unfortunate circumstance often divides families at infancy through young adulthood. This class will survey the causes and instances of these family divisions and explore introductory methods for locating biological kin.

Sunday, July 13 1:00-3:00 pm.

Baa- Baa Black Sheep: Non-Paternal Events & Other Family Scandals

Every family has one-the black sheep! But how should family historians deal with sensitive family issues? This class will examine the pros and cons of uncovering and sharing unsavory family history.

Sunday, July 20 1:00-3:00 pm.

You Ought to Be In Pictures:

Pictures tell a thousand words-as long as you can still see them! This class will help family historians identify photographic types and learn their best preservation techniques. Participants are welcome to bring their photos and questions!

Sunday, July 27 1:00-3:00 pm.

HolyHaplo groups!: DNA & Genealogy

A general introduction on the impact of DNA testing on genealogical research. This class will cover the basics of DNA testing & terminology and will explore the possibilities and limitations of DNA evidence.

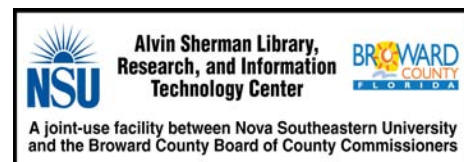

Workshops are FREE and open to the public.
Seating is limited. Registration required.
Please call 954-262-4613
