

DISCOVER YOUR ROOTS, DISCOVER YOUR WORLD...

2009 Summer Learning Series: Genealogy

Sunday, May 31 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
Begot, Begat, Begets: Beginning Genealogy 101

Participants will complete Ancestral Charts and Family Group Sheets, learn basic methodology and research techniques, and explore a variety of print and online research tools.

Saturday, June 6 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
Nothing Less than Full Victory: D-Day & WWII Veterans

In honor of D-Day Remembrance Day, we will explore the basics of military records and review the various oral history projects relating to WWII veterans.

Sunday, June 14 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
I've Got Proof: Sources, Evidence, and Citation Styles

This class will teach the fundamentals of working with documentary evidence, proper citation style and the Genealogical Proof Standard

Sunday, June 21 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
Picks & Asterisks: Online Searching & Internet Data-mining Part 1

The Internet has greatly simplified family history research. Just like using a library, though, searching skills are paramount to successful results. This class will delve into online searching techniques for free web sites such as Google

Sunday, June 28 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
Picks & Asterisks: Online Searching & Internet Data-mining, Part 2

The Internet has greatly simplified family history research. Just like using a library, though, searching skills are paramount to successful results. This class will delve into online searching techniques for pay sites such as Ancestry.com.

Sunday, July 5 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
Tall Tales & Family Gossip: Using Oral History as Evidence

Every family has a story – or so the story goes. This class will teach participants how to treat oral history as source evidence; how to record and document existing family tales as well as introduce the best interview techniques for living relatives.

Saturday, July 18 10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
How to Find A Revolutionary War Patriot in Your Family Tree

Have you ever wondered if a Revolutionary War patriot ancestor could be hidden in your family tree? Perhaps you are eligible to join the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) or the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR), and you don't even realize it. If you would like to find out, this is workshop is for you!

Sunday, July 26 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
You Ought to Be In Pictures: Photo Preservation for the Family Historian

Pictures tell a thousand words – as long as you can still see them! This class will help family historians identify photographic types and learn their best preservation techniques. Participants are welcome to bring their photos & questions!

Sunday, August 2 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
Holy Haplogroups! DNA & Genealogy

A general introduction on the impact of DNA testing on genealogical research. This class will cover the basics of DNA testing & terminology and will explore the possibilities and limitations of DNA evidence.

Saturday, August 8th 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
How to Document the Lineage to Your Patriot Ancestor

Whether you have just discovered a Revolutionary War ancestor in your family tree or you have known about your ancestor for years, Debbie Duay, Ph.D. will teach you how to gather the documentation necessary to substantiate the lineage.

Workshops are FREE and open to the public.

Registration required:

www.nova.edu/library/genealogy
or call 954.262.4613

All the classes will be in the Sherman Library, 1st floor

Each class has 35 seats

Floor Lab 1046