

2ND ANNUAL GENEALOGY FAIR

DISCOVER YOUR ROOTS, DISCOVER YOUR WORLD..

Saturday, May 2, 2009 9:00 am to 4:00 pm
Free and open to the public
Alvin Sherman Library

Nationally recognized experts and featured speakers include:

JOHN COLLETTA, Ph.D., author of They Came in Ships

RICK KITTLES, Ph.D., geneticist for the PBS series African American Lives

LYNN TURNER, AG, director of the Hispanic Records, Family Indexing Project

MATT KAPLAN, Ph.D., geneticist for the DNA Shoah Project

ROBERTA ESTES, director of the Lost Colony DNA Project

FAMILY TREE DNA, live demonstration of DNA results!

At this year's Fair, both new and expert genealogists can:

-  Get a free genealogy workbook, win door prizes, meet with Exhibitors
-  Learn Ancestry Library, Heritage Quest and Family Search Databases
-  Explore the Genealogy Room for books, journals and how-to manuals

Participants can connect locally and globally with other lineage-seekers by:

-  Learning about genetic genealogy and national and global DNA projects, such as the Lost Colony DNA Project and DNA Shoah Project.
-  Visiting with local genealogy groups that can assist with all facets of research, including Revolutionary War lineages; African, Spanish and Jewish roots; and research methods.

Exhibitors include: Proquest, African Ancestry, Daughters of the American Revolution, FamilySearch, Genealogical Society of Broward County, International Society of Genetic Genealogists, Jewish Genealogical Society of Broward County

Preregister for your free day of discovery.

www.nova.edu/library/genealogyfair
954-262-4613