

Meet Our Exhibitors:

Alvin Sherman Library

<http://www.nova.edu/library/genealogy>

Our Genealogy Collection provides free resources to aid in your research including both print materials and electronic databases. Our databases include Ancestry Library, the Digital Sanborn Maps and Origins, plus over 200 academic databases of interest to family historians. Our print collection contains over 4,000 titles specific to genealogical research. We also offer our patrons free genealogical instruction and programming throughout the year.

Cuban Genealogy Club of Miami

<http://www.cubangenclub.org/>

The Cuban Genealogy Club of Miami Florida, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that was founded in February of 2001. The club is the result of a shared desire for family historians, with a particular interest in Cuba, to convene regularly in order to further their knowledge and share information. Our commitment to Cuban genealogical research goes beyond the discovery of dates and names. We also strive for the preservation of our shared memories and experiences. The Cuban Genealogy Club of Miami Florida, Inc. seeks to foster an interest in the preservation of records and testimonies that document Cuban family history.

Daughters of the American Revolution

<http://www.dar.org>

The DAR, founded in 1890 and headquartered in Washington, D.C., is a non-profit, non-political volunteer women's service organization dedicated to promoting patriotism, preserving American history, and securing America's future through better education for children. As one of the most inclusive genealogical societies in the country, DAR boasts 165,000 members in 3,000 chapters across the United States and internationally. Any woman 18 years or older-regardless of race, religion, or ethnic background-who can prove lineal descent from a patriot of the American Revolution, is eligible for membership.

Family Search Databases – Plantation LDS

<http://www.familysearch.org>

FamilySearch is the largest genealogy organization in the world. Millions of people use FamilySearch records, resources, and services to learn more about their family history. For over 100 years, FamilySearch has been actively gathering, preserving, and sharing genealogical records worldwide. Patrons may freely access our resources and service online at FamilySearch.org, or through over 4,500 family history centers in 70 countries, including the renowned Family History Library in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Farquhar College of Arts and Sciences

<http://www.fcas.nova.edu/>

Set among Nova Southeastern University's 16 academic centers is the Farquhar College of Arts and Sciences. Choose from 24 undergraduate majors, 45 undergraduate minors, five certificate programs, and one graduate degree program. The academic experience at the college is profound and inspiring. Our smaller class sizes offer you personalized contact with professors, chances for active participation, and individualized support-all to help you achieve academic success. All this and the resources of an international university are at your disposal.

Genealogical Society of Broward County

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~flgsbc/>

The members of the Genealogical Society of Broward County are a diverse group with the common interest of tracing their family history. The purpose of the Society is to foster this interest, provide information, assistance and encouragement and to promote the preservation of information of a genealogical and historical nature.

Genealogical Society of Greater Miami

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~flgsgm/>

The Genealogical Society of Greater Miami is a non-profit organization incorporated in November, 1974. The object of the society is to stimulate and to encourage its members and others to collect and to distribute genealogical and historical information. Membership in the society is open to individuals, institutions, libraries and societies.

Guild of One-Name Studies

<http://www.one-name.org/>

The Guild is a charitable organization dedicated to promoting the public understanding of one-name studies and the preservation and accessibility of the resultant information. Founded in 1979 in Britain, the Guild has members all over the world, and is widely recognized as a centre of excellence in one-name studies. The Guild brings together those with an interest in one-name studies and other forms of surname study (such as DNA projects). Many members register a surname so as to embark on a Guild-recognized one-name study and coordinate world-wide activity in studying the surname. Only one person may register a specific surname, but membership of the Guild is open to all with an interest in surname studies, and is not restricted to those who wish to register a name.

Suzanne Woodie Design Studio
Heritage Book Design & Photo Restoration

<http://heritagebooks.wordpress.com/>

Suzanne Woodie creates keepsakes for your treasured memories. Suzanne is a graphic designer who is pursuing her passion for photo preservation and the creation of Family Heritage Books. Her services include photo restoration, custom designed books and artwork.

Jewish Genealogical Society of Broward County

<http://www.jgsbc.org>

Founded in 1988 by Bernard Israelite Kouchel, JGSBC is a non-profit organization dedicated to collecting, preserving and disseminating genealogical information, techniques and research tools among people interested in Jewish genealogy and family history. JGSBC is a member of the International Association of Jewish Genealogical Societies, Inc. (IAJGS), with 10,000+ individual members who are actively researching their Jewish roots. Our base of operations and library of research materials is on the campus of the Soref Jewish Community Center.

Mayflower Society

<http://www.themayflowersociety.com>

More than one hundred years ago, a group of descendants of the Pilgrims who sailed on the Mayflower in 1620, saw the need for a national society to honor their memory. The intention was to remember these Pilgrims who established Plymouth Colony, in what was then called the northern part of Virginia. Today there are tens-of-millions of individuals descended from these brave souls. It is the goal of The Mayflower Society to join together people who share this heritage and to carry on the memory of our Pilgrim ancestors.

Middle River Press

<http://www.middleriverpress.com/>

Middle River Press was founded by Judy and Bruce Borich. We began our careers as photojournalists, then expanded into book and magazine production and publishing. We have an extended group of editors, proofreaders, designers, illustrators, printers and photographers ready to help you publish your story. From turn-key start-to finish publishing to any portion of the publishing world we can provide the expertise you need!

University Book Store

<http://nsubooks.bncollege.com/>

The University Book Store is the official supplier of textbooks and apparel for Nova Southeastern University.

University Travel

<http://www.nova.edu/cwis/bsv/travel/>

Universal Travel Inc. is an official travel agency of Nova Southeastern University. Universal Travel has great vacation values to share with NSU staff, students and associates. We offer local coordination combined with the purchasing power of American Express negotiated specials. Many Cruise and Vacation Packages can be researched on our Website, or for more personalized service, call one of our Vacation Specialists at 954-525-5000 x242.