Essential Documents for a Clinical Trial

Overview, Regulatory Support and References:

The documentation required for a clinical trial is dictated by Regulatory Agencies (e.g. USA FDA, Canadian TPD) and by the ICH GCP Guidelines. Documents may need to be revised during the course of a research study, but all documents should be maintained in the Essential Documents Binder. The Essential Documents Binder should be stored at the conducting College/Center.