If you don't know where you're going, any old road will get you there. However, in the world of grants knowing exactly where you're going, through your expression of the project's goals and objectives, is a must!

- Identifying anticipated outcomes of the project in clearly specified terms
- Aligning needs, goals, and objectives
- Distinguishing between a goal and an objective
- Learning to write "SMART" objectives through discussing, reviewing, and writing sample objectives
