

Nominate your student TODAY!

About the President's 64

Established by NSU's sixth President, George L. Hanbury II, Ph.D. in 2011, the 'President's 64' is a committed body of student leaders whose purpose is to strengthen the relationship between Nova Southeastern University and its community. Members of the President's 64 provide targeted feedback to the President, and serve as student ambassadors and representatives at University events.

In order to nominate a student, any faculty and staff member, or graduate assistant may submit a letter of recommendation including the following information:

- How the student exemplifies any/all of the eight core values of the university
- Any involvement/leadership the student holds on campus
- What makes the student a strong candidate to represent the University and President Hanbury

Eligibility

Membership is based upon invitation only and is limited to 64 currently enrolled NSU undergraduate, graduate, and professional students.

Members must:

- Be actively engaged in their respective academic communities
- maintain GPA of 2.5 and remain in good academic standing as per NSU's Student Handbook.
- maintain membership in at least TWO (2) student groups or organizations
- possess strong leadership and communication skills.
- demonstrate a sense of Shark Pride as evidenced by their involvement in NSU affiliated organizations.
- commit to attending an annual training session and provide 20 hours of service per year if selected.
- adhere to all policies and requirements outlined in the President's 64 agreement, if selected.

For questions or more information about the President's 64 or to submit a letter of recommendation, please send an email to presidents64@nova.edu or call (954) 262-7193.