Earn Your Business Degree from Nova

The #1 MBA Choice in the Bahamas

For more than 17 years, Nova Southeastern University has offered business degree programs in the Bahamas. Starting in October 2011, classes will again be offered locally in Freeport on weekends and evenings, so you can earn your degree while continuing to work full-time.

Nova professors are real-world corporate leaders, and will prepare you with the knowledge and skills needed to add immediate value in today's competitive workplace.

Attend an Information Meeting and learn how you can join the ranks of Nova graduates by earning a bachelor's or master's degree from the Huizenga Business School.
