Albert Williams, Ph.D., Assistant Professor and Chair of Finance and Economics at Nova Southeastern University's H. Wayne Huizenga School of Business and Entrepreneurship, will give a presentation on how to personally foster and maintain sound financial management in today's volatile economy. He will provide insight regarding the U.S. and global economies, as well as sharing information specifically related to the economic struggles and opportunities in the Bahamas.

Williams teaches microeconomics, macroeconomics, corporate finance, and personal finance at both graduate and undergraduate levels. He lectures for NSU in Florida, Jamaica, and the Bahamas. He is regularly featured on NBC, CBS, and WPTV in South Florida. Williams consistently gets excellent teaching evaluations. Students appreciate his down-to-earth approach to complex economic and finance issues. A renowned speaker, he presents to students, public officers, and private sector groups on topics related to finance, international trade, business ethics, competitiveness, careers in business, economics, and business statistics.
