

Privacy Act (FERPA)

Nova Southeastern University ensures the confidentiality of student records in accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act \(FERPA\) of 1974, known as the Buckley Amendment. Your family's financial information and the type and amount of your aid will be held in confidence.

You can find the document on the University's Registrar site; http://www.nova.edu/cwis/registrar/family\_act1974.html (here they can download the document if they have Adobe Reader)

In order to release information to other individuals, such as your spouse, parent or significant other, you must provide written consent. You may complete the Authorization Form and submit it to the University Registrar's Office, 3301 College Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33314 or the One-Stop Shop located in the Horvitz and Terry Administration Buildings on the main campus.