Tips for using STATRef!

- Choose one, several, or all of the titles to search simultaneously.
- With the “Precision” drop-down box, you can limit your search so that two or more terms must be used together.
- Click the “Include Synonyms” to expand your search to other medical subject headings.
- Take advantage of the STATRef! training guide.
- You can print out pages from the textbooks.
- Stedman’s medical dictionary is available in the red bar at the top of the page.
