The Greek Wave
A look at fraternity and sorority life at Nova Southeastern University

Winter 2010

Once again, yet another school year has come and gone. Of all the student clubs and organizations, Greeks have the strongest presence at NSU. Our fraternities and sororities have made their presence known on campus through various programs, community service projects, and philanthropies—coordinated by NSU’s 11 different Greek chapters—during the 2009-2010 academic year. Without these chapters, our campus community would not be as vibrant and proud as it is today.

Greek Week 2010

Each year during Greek Week, NSU’s fraternities and sororities come together to promote one thing: Greek Unity. During this year’s Greek Week, held in April, three teams were selected:

Pink Team
- Kappa Sigma
- Lambda Theta Alpha
- Sigma Delta Tau

Yellow Team
- Beta Theta Pi
- Delta Phi Epsilon Lambda
- Theta Phi
- Zeta Phi Beta

Orange Team
- Alpha Kappa Alpha
- Phi Beta Sigma
- Phi Sigma Sigma

UPDATES:

UIFI

The UIFI conference brings together fraternity men and sorority women from across North America to create opportunities to explore, define, and enhance their leadership skills, personal awareness, and commitment to their fraternity or sorority. At UIFI, you have an opportunity to improve your own skills and leadership abilities to be a positive influence on your chapter, council, and community. Individuals selected to attend this conference will be announced at the Greek Awards Ceremony at the end of Greek Week.

SEPC

The Southeastern Panhellenic Council conference was held March 18–20. This conference was geared towards women within Panhellenic Council sororities. One member from each NSU Panhellenic Council sorority attended to become more knowledgeable and to share the information she received at the conference with her respective sorority. These individuals were Stephanie Lopez, Sara Forler, and Victoria DeMaio.

NPHC

The National Pan-Hellenic Council also had its conference earlier this year at the University of Florida. This conference focused on fraternities and sororities within the Divine Nine.

Members from Nova Southeastern University’s Kappa Alpha Psi, Alpha Kappa Alpha, and Phi Beta Sigma chapters attended the NPHC conference to gain knowledge and information that would serve their respective Greek chapters. Among the attendees were: Sheldon Snaggs, Alex St. Preux, Kettia Alusma, and David Perrin.
Alternative Spring Break

This year’s Alternative Spring Break at NSU was a trip to New Orleans to rebuild homes destroyed during Hurricane Katrina in 2005. The trip was open to all NSU students. Among the large group of students who joined this effort were two individuals, Caitlin Butler and Jenna Wells, who received scholarships to attend from the Office of Greek Life. Other Greek organizations represented on this trip included: Delta Phi Epsilon, Lambda Theta Alpha and Phi Sigma Sigma. The NSU students who sacrificed their Spring Break to volunteer alongside the New Orleans chapter of Habitat for Humanity had a positive effect on families still struggling to recover, nearly five year later.
