A Training Program for Students and Faculty at the Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Grade Levels to Increase the Use of Technology Throughout the Curriculum

by
Sharon Kochlany
Cluster 1

A Practicum Report Presented to the Ed.D. Program in Instructional Technology and Distance Education in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of Doctor of Education

Nova Southeastern University
1998
This practicum took place as described.

Verifier: Dave Goldstein

12500 West Sample Road, Coral Springs, FL 33065

Address

July 22, 1998

Date

This practicum report was submitted by Sharon Kochlany under the direction of the advisor listed below. It was submitted to the Ed.D. Program in Instructional Technology and Distance Education and approved in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Education at Nova Southeastern University.

Approved:

January 2, 1999

Date of Final Approval Of Report

Mary Ellen Sapp, Ph.D.,
Advisor
Acknowledgements

I would like to thank practicum advisor Dr. Mary Ellen Sapp for her constant support and insightful suggestions. She provided gentle guidance tempered with motivational encouragement.

Additionally, I want to thank middle school principal Dave Goldstein, magnet coordinator Stella Shelby, Media specialist Gayle Spinell-Gellers, and computer teacher Jane Vigna for their support of my practicum efforts. I would be remiss if I did not thank my STEP students and the entire faculty for their willing cooperation during practicum implementation.

Finally, I want to acknowledge the patience and support of my husband Ami, daughter Rachel and son Danny. Their love and belief in me make my endeavors possible.