The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. With limited exception, Nova Southeastern University (NSU) is required to receive written consent from students before personal identifiable information can be discussed or released to any third party (e.g., spouse, parent, employer, etc.) This Authorization for Release of Information form allows students to grant others access to their records.

FERPA affords students rights as follows:

- The right to inspect and review their education record maintained by NSU.

Students who wish to inspect and review their education record(s) should submit a written request to the Office of the University Registrar that identifies the record(s) they wish to inspect. NSU is not required to provide copies of records, unless, for reasons such as great distance, it is impossible for the student to review the record. The Office of the University Registrar will respond to requests within 45 days and notify the student of the time and place where the record(s) may be inspected.

- The right to request an amendment to an education record.

Students may request an amendment to their education record which they believe to be inaccurate or misleading. Concerns may be informally discussed with the university's compliance officer. If the compliance officer agrees with the student's concerns, the appropriate records will be amended. If the compliance officer finds the student's concerns to be unfounded, he/she will notify the student within a reasonable period of time that the student's records will not be amended. The University Compliance Office will then inform the student of his or her right to a formal hearing. After the hearing, if NSU still decides not to amend the record, the student has the right to place a statement with the record setting forth his or her view about the contested information. Students who wish to request an amendment to their education record(s) should contact the Office of the University Registrar.

- Generally, NSU must have written permission from the student in order to release any information from a student's education record. However, FERPA allows schools to disclose those records, without consent, to the following parties, or under the following conditions:

- NSU officials with legitimate educational interest;
- other schools to which a student is transferring;
- specified officials for audit or evaluation purposes;
- appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to students;
- organizations conducting certain studies for or on behalf of the school;
- accrediting organizations;
- to comply with a judicial order of lawfully issued subpoena;
- appropriate officials in cases of health and safety emergencies; or
- state and local authorities, within a juvenile justice system, pursuant to specific state law.

- The right to file a complaint, concerning alleged failures by NSU to comply with the requirements of FERPA, with: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue SW, Washington, D.C. 20202-4605

- NSU may disclose, without consent, "directory" information. NSU designates the following student information as public or "directory information." Such information may be disclosed by NSU at the university's discretion.

- |                           |  |
|---------------------------|--|
| ○ Student name            | ○ Dates of attendance                  |
| ○ Local and home address  | ○ Degrees, honors, and awards received |
| ○ Telephone numbers       | ○ Enrollment status                    |

Students may request that NSU withhold directory information by completing a Request to Prevent Disclosure of Directory Information Form (located on the Registrar's Web site at www.nova.edu/registrar). The form should be submitted to: NSU, Office of the University Registrar, 3301 College Avenue, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33314-7796. Please note: Once a student has filed a Request to Prevent Disclosure of Directory Information Form, the Office of the University Registrar will not release the student's directory information to anyone, including for such purposes as publication on the Dean's List, listings in commencement bulletins, and requests from prospective employers.

- The right to be notified of students' rights under FERPA annually.

The University Registrar's Office sends a FERPA notification via email to all students each fall.
