

Professional Licensure Disclosure Statement
College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences

Degree Title	Level	Degree
Family Therapy	Doctorate	Ph.D.

Professional Licensure Disclosure Statement: Nova Southeastern University, College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Science, Doctor Family Therapy program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (COAMFTE) of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT). Graduation from a COAMFTE AAMFT accredited program allows for the graduate to sit for the national examination developed by the Examination Advisory Committee of the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards (AMFTRB) and Professional Examination Services. It also meets the educational requirements to be eligible to apply for professional licensure or certification as a Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT) in all 50 states.

The College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Science cannot confirm to whether its Doctor of Family Therapy program meets all of the requirements for licensure in a student’s state of residence. Requirements for state professional licensure or certification are subject to change frequently and vary by state. Therefore, it is strongly encouraged and is the responsibility of the student to ensure the degree they earn will meet requirements for licensure if applicable in the state in which they will seek to be licensed. Students should refer to their applicable state licensing body for further information. For licensing board contact information, please refer AAMFT website at:

http://www.aamft.org/iMIS15/AAMFT/Content/Directories/MFT_Licensing_Boards.aspx?hkey=2f66f29c-ca16-4a58-8fff-30d176311f87

Family Therapy	Master	M.S.
----------------	--------	------

Professional Licensure Disclosure Statement: Nova Southeastern University, College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Science, Master of Science in Family Therapy program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (COAMFTE) of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT). Graduation from a COAMFTE AAMFT accredited program allows for the graduate to sit for the national examination developed by the Examination Advisory Committee of the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards (AMFTRB) and Professional Examination Services. It also meets the educational requirements to be eligible to apply for professional licensure or certification as a Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT) in all 50 states.

The College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Science cannot confirm to whether its Master of Science in Family Therapy meets all of the requirements for licensure in a student’s state of residence. Requirements for state professional licensure or certification are subject to change frequently and vary by state. Therefore, it is strongly encouraged and is the responsibility of the student to ensure the degree they earn will meet requirements for licensure if applicable in the state in which they will seek to

Professional Licensure Disclosure Statement
College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences

Degree Title	Level	Degree
be licensed. Students should refer to their applicable state licensing body for further information. For licensing board contact information, please refer AAMFT website at: http://www.aamft.org/iMIS15/AAMFT/Content/Directories/MFT_Licensing_Boards.aspx?hkey=2f66f29c-ca16-4a58-8fff-30d176311f87
Paralegal Studies	Bachelor	B.S.
Professional Licensure Disclosure Statement: Nova Southeastern University, College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Science, Bachelor of Science in Paralegal Studies program is accredited by the American Bar Association (ABA). According to the ABA, paralegals are not currently licensed as lawyers are in any state. The supervising attorney remains responsible for the paralegal's work product and conduct. Applicants to the Bachelor of Science in Paralegal Studies program should note that requirements for professional licensure are subject to change. While every attempt is made to stay abreast of the laws in each state, NSU cannot confirm whether a particular program meets specific requirements for professional licensure, if applicable, outside of the State of Florida. Before beginning any program, prospective students are encouraged to research the requirements in their intended state of residence to ensure that their enrollment in a program will meet their state's licensing or certification requirements if applicable. For additional information regarding state activity related to paralegals, please visit: https://www.americanbar.org/groups/paralegals/resources/state_activity_home.html		