SECTION A: STATE REQUIREMENT

This Enrollment Agreement is required by the State of California.

SECTION B: ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This is a legally binding document when signed by the student and accepted by the school. Your signature acknowledges the following:

1. You have been given reasonable time to read and understand the information in this document.
2. You have been given a written statement of the return policy (including examples of how it applies).
3. You have been given access to a Dr. Pallavi Patel College of Health Care Sciences (PCHCS) student handbook and Nova Southeastern University Health Professions Division academic catalog (including a description of the courses or educational services that includes all material facts concerning the college and the program or course of instruction that are likely to affect your decision to enroll).

When the University receives and accepts your signed copy of this form, a copy will be sent to you for your records.

SECTION C: PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

You must complete 52 credit hours to satisfy the program's requirements. The number of weeks to complete the program is contained in your School Performance Fact Sheet. Your actual time to complete the program may depend on a variety of factors, including but not limited to: applicable transfer credits, continual attendance/breaks, or other factors that are individual to you.

Your anticipated completion date can be determined by using the number of weeks for your program as shown on the School Performance Fact Sheet and adding that amount to the date at which you began your course of study. The program length on your School Performance Fact Sheet reflects the established expected time to complete a program. The term expected time means the length of time it would take a student to complete this program if the student is continuously enrolled, takes a full course load, successfully completes each attempted course, and does not have any transfer credits. Students may exceed or complete prior to the established expected time for a variety of reasons that are individual to the student. This enrollment agreement remains in effect until the program is completed in accordance with all University policies.

SECTION D: PERFORMANCE FACT SHEET AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Prior to signing this enrollment agreement, you must be given a catalog or brochure and a School Performance Fact Sheet, which you are encouraged to review prior to signing this agreement. These documents contain important policies and performance data for this institution. This institution is required to have you sign and date the information included in the School Performance Fact Sheet relating to completion rates, placement rates, license examination passage rates, salaries or wages, and the most recent cohort default rate, if applicable, prior to signing this agreement.

SECTION G: CALIFORNIA STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF)

California Regulations require the following disclosures:

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

- You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and pre-pay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.
- You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:
 - ✓ You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
 - ✓ Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.

The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or are enrolled in a residency program attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education. You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

- The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
- The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.

- The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
- There was a material failure to comply with the Act or this Division within 30 days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
- An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act. However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

SECTION H: STUDENT LOANS AND FINANCIAL AID

Degree-seeking students who are U.S. citizens or eligible noncitizens enrolled in an eligible academic program can apply for federal financial aid as a means of assisting with financing their education. Certificate programs may also be eligible for federal financial aid. If you are eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and you default on the loan, both of the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against you, including applying any income tax refund to which you are entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
2. You may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

If you obtain a loan to pay for an educational program, you will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan, plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If you have received federal student financial aid funds, you are entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. Students receiving federal financial aid have varying rights and responsibilities in accordance with the Borrower's Rights and Responsibilities Statement, please contact Nova Southeastern University's Financial Aid Office for additional information.

SECTION I: PAYMENT SCHEDULE

Nova Southeastern University collects tuition on a per-class basis. Courses are generally fourteen (14) weeks long. Your tuition must be paid in full, or arrangements must be made and approved by the University, before each class. If you withdraw from the University before completing your program, you will have no further financial obligation to the University beyond paying for courses completed or in process (in accordance with the "Refund Information" in Section K, below).

SECTION K: REFUND INFORMATION

Students who wish to withdraw from the program or course must submit a written request for voluntary withdrawal to the dean or program director, who will evaluate the student's request. After completing the required documentation and obtaining the dean's or program director's approval, an eligible student may receive partial credit of the tuition, according to the following formula:

- Drops during the first week of the semester in which classes begin75 percent
- Drops during the second week of the semester in which classes beginNo refund

The withdrawal period starts in the first week of the semester and ends three weeks prior to the end of the semester. Students who drop after the first week of the semester will not be entitled to receive a refund. Students may not be given refunds for portions of tuition paid by financial aid funds. As appropriate, the respective financial aid programs will be credited in accordance with federal regulations. Students should notify the Office of Student Financial Assistance prior to withdrawing to determine the effect this will have on financial aid. For complete withdrawals, please refer to the Return of Title IV Funds section of the student handbook.

Failure to comply with these requirements could jeopardize future receipt of Title IV student assistance funds at any institution of higher education the student may attend. If a student is due a refund, it will be mailed to the student's address or deposited directly into his or her checking account as soon as the dean of the respective college has approved the withdrawal and the drop request has been processed. The tuition refund policy is subject to change at the discretion of the university's board of trustees/the NSU administration. Changes to a semester's registration will not be accepted 20 days after the semester ends.
