

Virtual Information Session:

Wednesday,
September 9
Noon—1:00 p.m.
EST

*Case competitions are eligible for one unit of experiential learning credit.***

Presented by the Center for Academic and Professional Success and Halmos College of Arts and Sciences

NSU Florida

FALL 2020

Immigration Policy and Election Campaign Case Competition

Looking to gain hands on experience in Political Science and Public Relations?

You are a candidate seeking a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives from a constituency in South Florida.

You and your campaign team (1-3 Students) are charged with developing a bipartisan immigration policy to unite the South Florida voting community

Winning Team will walk away with a prize.

Register on  handshake for the information session.

To sign up for the case competition or for any questions, please email casecompetitions@nova.edu.

