

Heidi Schaeffer, MD, earned her Bachelor Degrees in Biology and Psychology at Barry University (Miami, FL, 1994) and was Valedictorian of both majors. In 1998, she graduated with her Doctorate of Medicine Degree from the University Of Miami School Of Medicine. She did her Internal Medicine training at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami. Licensed to practice medicine in Florida since 1999, Dr. Schaeffer has worked with private and public healthcare organizations (including the Department of Health). She is an Executive Appointment to the Board of the BHTC, and a current and active member of the Broward Human Trafficking Coalition; committed to raising awareness of the Trafficking epidemic to fellow clinicians.