FAMILY THERAPY CLINIC AT THE BRIEF THERAPY INSTITUTE

Family, Couples, and Individual
Therapy to Create Positive Change

At the Family Therapy Clinic, at the Brief Therapy Institute (BTI), we can help you find

- a happier relationship
- better communication with those who are important to you
- school success
- good parenting skills
- a stronger blended family
- a healthier intimate relationship
- a blending of medical and family issues
- a family that works together
- safe ways to work through life's challenges

At the clinic, we offer

- a sliding-scale fee
- day and evening appointments
- access to therapeutic teams
- quick entry into first appointments

Most of our clients are able to turn things around in 5 to 10 sessions.

We see people from all walks of life who are dealing with personal concerns, difficult relationships, or their children's needs. Our goal is to work with you to discover creative solutions to your problems.

Our therapists are trained to work with families and individuals of diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds, religious affiliations, and sexual orientations.

We are here to work with you to help you create opportunities for effective change.

Our therapists are graduate students who have training in brief therapy and receive ongoing AAMFT*-approved supervision by faculty members in the Department of Family Therapy at NSU.

As brief therapists, we focus on our clients' strengths and resources. When you come to see us, we will explore the difficulties you are facing and help you work on the solutions that will make life better.
