

HOLOCAUST REFLECTION CONTEST CHECKLIST FOR STUDENTS

Above: Visual art winning projects and winners at the award ceremony

___ Review the Frequently Asked Questions web pages.

Select a Testimonial

___ Document the name of the Holocaust survivor.

___ Document the web address where you found the testimonial.

Create Your Project

___ Clearly express through your project what you learned about yourself and modern society by studying the testimonies of Holocaust survivors.

___ Avoid ONLY retelling well-known facts about the Holocaust and concentration camps in your project.

___ Stay within the contest's guidelines:

- Written expression: 300 words max, double space, 12-point font, and save file as a doc, docx, or pdf
- Video or automated presentation: 5:00 minutes max, and save file as an mp4, mpeg, mov, or ppt
- Art: save file as a jpg, gif, or bmp

___ For your video or presentation, create credits but do not include them on your project. There will be a field in the application where these can be added.

Sponsored by the Holocaust Learning and Education Fund, Inc.
and hosted by Nova Southeastern University

nova.edu/holocaustcontest | holocaustessay@nova.edu

HOLOCAUST REFLECTION CONTEST CHECKLIST FOR STUDENTS (cont.)

Prepare Your Project for Submission

- Double-check your project for typos and grammatical errors BEFORE you sit down to submit the online application.
- Remove your name and any other identifiers on the project itself.
- Remove the name of your school on the project itself.
- Avoid using symbols or blank spaces in your file name.
- Save your file on a computer (not on a mobile device), and submit the contest application on a computer. The application is not compatible with smartphones and tablets.
- Make sure your file size does not exceed 50 MB.

Enter the Contest

Be prepared to include the following on the contest application:

- What you learned about yourself and modern society by studying the testimonies of Holocaust survivors
- The survivor's name
- The web address (URL) where you found the survivor's testimony
- The names of any individuals who contributed to your project and you want to credit
- Your name and email*
- Your teacher's name and email*
- Your school's name, county, and whether it is a private or public school

* The application does not accept Hotmail email addresses.