1-Your Financial Statement

Is your financial statement in your name?  Yes  No

If the answer is NO, (i.e. the bank account belongs to a relative, friend or other sponsor), then a letter of sponsorship is required. You may submit your own or print the NSU Sponsorship Form (www.nova.edu/internationalstudents/forms) and send it to OISS with the corresponding financial statement.

2- Bringing Family Members

As an F-1 visa holder, immediate family members are permitted to accompany you while you pursue your degree at Nova Southeastern University. An I-20 can be issued for your spouse and each son or daughter under the age of 21, so that they may obtain the F-2 visa.

Are you bringing dependent family members with you?  Yes  No

(Dependent family members are spouse and/or children ONLY) If your answer is YES, please complete the following table (use BLOCK letters)

Dependent Family Member Information
First Name	Middle Name	Family Name	Relationship

In order for your dependents (spouse and/or children) to be issued an I-20, the following must be submitted to the Office of International Students and Scholars:

- Copy of biographical page of their passports
- Proof of an additional $6,000 (for spouse) and $ 4,000 (for each child) of financial support

Important: Should these documents be in a language other than English, you will need to have them officially translated prior to submission.

3-Transferring from another U.S. institution?  Yes  No

If the answer is YES, please complete the Transfer Authorization form (www.nova.edu/internationalstudents/forms/transfer\_authorization\_form) and send it to OISS.
