

DR. BRAD A. WILLIAMS

Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean for the College of Undergraduate Studies

March 20, 2020

Hello Sharks,

As the university transitions to all classes online on March 23, the following student support services will transition in-person services online, as well. These student support services are available to support student learning and academic success while the university is taking proactive steps to ensure our shared safety and the safety of the community at large:

Career Development

(954) 262-7201

nova.edu/career

<https://nova.joinhandshake.com/login>

Henderson Student Counseling Services

(954) 424-6911

<https://www.hendersonbh.org/services/student-counseling/nova-southeastern-university/>

International Affairs

(954) 262-7240

intl@nova.edu

<https://www.nova.edu/internationalaffairs/index.html>

Student Conduct

(954) 262-7281

studentconduct@nova.edu

<https://www.nova.edu/studentconduct/contact-us.html>

Student Disability Services

(954) 262-7185

disabilityservices@nova.edu

www.nova.edu/disabilityservices

Title IX

titleix@nova.edu

<https://www.nova.edu/title-ix/index.html>

Tutoring and Testing Center

(954) 262-8350

<https://www.nova.edu/tutoring-testing/index.html>

Undergraduate Academic Advising Center

(954) 262-7990 | (800) 541-6682, ext. 27990

UGadvising@nova.edu

<https://www.nova.edu/ugadvising/index.html>

Veteran Affairs

(954) 262-7473

VRC@nova.edu

<https://www.nova.edu/veterans/>

Sincerely,

Dr. Brad A. Williams

Vice President of Student Affairs

Dean of the College of Undergraduate

Nova Southeastern University