OUR STUDENTS SAY IT BEST:

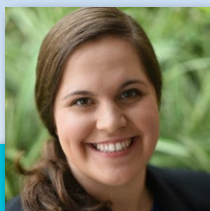

My time as a Graduate Assistant at NSU could only be described as amazing, I gained valuable hands-on experiences, classroom lessons that related to my work, gained life-long friendships and Mentors. You are never limited to one experience as NSU gives you the opportunity to learn and collaborate with multiple offices, which makes you acquire skills of a full-time professional."

Fadiel Hernandez, Class of 2018

*Current Job Title:
Residence Life Coordinator at Florida International University*

*NSU Graduate Assistantship:
Residential Life and Housing*

*Undergraduate Institution:
Buffalo State College*

As a Graduate Assistant at NSU, you are treated like a full-time professional as soon as you arrive on campus. I honestly can't imagine myself in any other masters program because of all the opportunities and support NSU provides.

The classes directly translate into my assistantship, and the skills I have gained through valuable hands-on experiences make me excited and confident for the job search process."

Crystal Knuth,
NSU Graduate Assistant for Student Media

*Undergraduate Institution:
University of Wisconsin Oshkosh*

My favorite part about being a Graduate Assistant at NSU was how closely the departments in Student Affairs worked together. You are never limited to just your department and your specific assistantship. There are many events and opportunities to collaborate with different offices that provides you with a more holistic experience in Student Affairs."

Amy Park, Class of 2018

*Current Job Title:
Admissions Counselor at Springfield College*

*NSU Graduate Assistantship:
Intramural Sports*

*Undergraduate Institution:
University of New Haven*

M.S. IN COLLEGE STUDENT AFFAIRS GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP POSITIONS
